

The Nugents in Ireland (1415-present day)

The 600 year story of the De Nogent Family in Ireland from 1415 (the approximate date that the family name was anglicized to Nugent), is obviously disjointed. Many members of the family have left indelible traces, in Ireland, in England, and later, in other countries of the world.

This document, when it is finished will probably be structured in the following manner :

- 1 - Information concerning a known Family Member A,
- 2 - Synopsis of events between xxxx and yyyy (define both dates),
- 3 - Information concerning a known Family Member B,
- etc.

However, this section is under development. Who knows when it will be finished ?
